

Have you got what it takes to be an Island Explorer?

Visit the sites below, answer the questions and find out!

In order to answer the questions, there is no need to pay any admission charges. Stay safe and good luck!

(Map, if you need it, is on page 3).

Site	Questions	Your answers
Clarence Battery	Caution: there are stunning views at this site but be aware of the sheer drops especially at the eastern end.
	How many cannons are there?
	How many windows are there at the side of guard room?
	What is the length of the 24 pound carronade?
La Gran'mère du Chimquière, outside St Martins Church	On special occasion days, what might you see around her head?
	Look closely at her face and draw it as accurately as you can.
Petit Bot	How many small pipes stick out of the tower?
	Which is higher, the flagpole or tower?
	There's an adjacent flight of steps to the flat grassy area where there once was a hotel. How many steps are there?
Creux ès Faïes	What is the tomb known locally as?
	According to Guernsey folklore, what did the fairies do at midnight on moonlit nights?
Fort Grey	Who is the Fort named after?
Mont Herault	In the past, soldiers of the West Regiment would have kept watch here. What time did they start and finish their shift?
	What is inscribed on a granite block, found near the South West corner?

L'Ancrese Tower No. 4	How many windows are there?
Déhus Dolmen	It's thanks to Sir John de Havilland that we can visit this site today. He saved it from destruction – but in what year?
	How much did Mr de Havilland pay for the Déhus Dolmen?
Come out of the dolmen and go left. After a minute walking, look for a blue plaque on your left. It is....
The blue plaque for Marie Ozanne	What did Major Marie Ozanne do during her life to be awarded a special blue plaque?
	How old was she when she died?
	A tricky one to finish. Name one other person in Guernsey to be awarded a blue plaque – and the plaque's location.	The person is.. The location is...

Did you know that you can nominate someone for a Guernsey blue plaque? Apply online here: www.museums.gov.gg/plaques

Well done for completing the Island Explorers quiz! Take this form to Guernsey Museum at Candie (open daily 10.00-17.00) to claim a small prize for taking part.
