

Mystery guests in the Museum!

Mystery guest	HINT!
Welcome. I was the last Keeper of the Hanois Lighthouse. My name is R_____ G_____.	There is a model of me.
I am 100ft high and over 150 years old. I am the H_____ / _____.	I send out light signals.
I tell the engine room how fast to go. Every time I send a message, a bell rings. I am a _____.	One message I send is 'full speed'.
My job is to look after the ship's compass. I am a _____.	Look out for the green + red balls.
The year was 1978 when I washed ashore at Grandes Rocques. I am O_____.	I was on my way to Brazil.
Go downstairs and right.
There were 24 others like me and I was found in a crate from HMS Boreas. I am a _____.	I am a type of gun.
I'm huge! I'm longer than a football pitch and I came to Guernsey in 2003. I am V_____.	I am on the inner wall.
You make me work by turning the handle and I make a loud noise! I am a _____ / _____.	Look at the Prosperity display.
My colour is white and it's quite common to find me on the seabed. I am a C_____ / _____.	I was used for smoking.
You use me to breathe underwater. I am an _____.	I begin with the letter A.

Unscramble the highlighted letters to spell a place in Guernsey: _ _ _ _ _

Clue: it's a bay next to Fort Grey.

PTO for answers...

Fort Grey Shipwreck Museum

1. Robbie Goldsmith
2. Hanois Lighthouse
3. Telegraph
4. Binnacle
5. Orion
6. Musket
7. Vermontborg
8. Fog horn
9. Clay pipe
10. Aqualung

The unscrambled word is Rocquaine 😊