

These pages use amended extracts from the transcripts of interviews made with a small number of those who were children during the period of the Occupation of Guernsey by German Forces 1940-45.

Please note that timescales and some information will not necessarily fit with official accounts.